Washington Gossip.

The following interesting paragraphs are from the Washington correspondence of the Boston Post:

THE DAVIS TRIAL.

Preparations are already being made to secure reporters of known ability for the trial of Jefferson Davis in October next; and from the parties making those preparations, there is little room for doubt that both the Government and Davis's counsel really expect the trial to come off at the time. Mr. Sutton, of the Senate corps, will probably be the reporter for the Government, and the case will be published seratim in his unobtrusive but very valuable serial, "The Reporter."

SPANGLER.

In consequence of the new developments regarding the testimony given in the Assassination trial, efforts are being made to obtain the release of Spangler, of Ford's Theatre, who was sent to the Dry Tortugas, being found guilty of being accessory after the fact in the murder of Mr. Lincoln. Spangler, however, is known to ask for a civil trial rather than a pardon, being more desirous, he says, of establishing his innocence than of merely obtaining his release. It would be a rich treat for those who love to follow the intricacies of conflicting testimonies to see the witnesses who swore at the old Penitentiary under protection, subjected to an unfettered cross-examination in a free court of law.

The War in Europe.

The record of the chief events of the first week of the European war shows thus far a success of the Prussian armies which meets, if it does not surpass, the boldest expectations of the friends of Prussia.

On the 14th of June the middle States of Germany, by voting for the Austrian motion in Frankfort, had declared their readiness to join in a war against Prussia. On the 15th, Prussian troops had entered two of these States, Saxony and Hanover. One week later, on the 23d, the larger portion of both Kingdoms, including the capitals of of each, were in the hands of the victor. Kings, ministers, and armies were on the flight; and as to the army of Hanover, it even was still doubtful whether it could make good its escape, as the Prussians had captured Cassel, which lies south of Hanover. The Grand Duchy of Hesse-Darmstadt, the Electorate of Hesse-Cassel, and the Duchy of Nassau, had already shared the fate of Saxony and Hanover. A regiment of Hesse-Darmstadt is reported to have been cut to pieces, and the Elector of Hesse-Cassel himself has been captured. The rapid and brilliant movements of the Prussians have thus far met with no opposition. The Austrians, who, on the first outbreak of hostilities, were expected to dispute the possession of Dresden, have not only not advanced into Saxony, but have even allowed the Prussians to advance from Saxony and Silesia, unopposed, into Bohemia. The allies of Austria among the German States were unable to comprehend the causes of this inactivity, and began to complain that Austria had involved them in war without being able to protect them. The most powerful of the minor States, Bavaria, was even reported to hesitate again whether she should take an active part in the war or not. The main armies of the contending parties are now confronting each other on the frontier of Silesia and Bohemia. Some Austrian troops had advanced into Silesia, but the latest dispatches are not only silent about their further progress, but they speak, on the contrary, of the invasion of Bohemia by the Prussians. Benedek's plan was still kept strictly secret, but upon the further advance of the Prussians will soon become apparent.

A part of Western Saxony has not yet been occupied by the Prussians, and there a concentration of Saxon and Austrian forces has taken place, which may at any time be joined by from fifty thousand to eighty thousand Bavarians, unless Bavaria should, after all, deem it safest to keep out of the contest.

A Federal army of about sixty thousand men, under the command of Prince Alexander, of Hesse, has been concentrated at Frankfort. It consists of the contingents of Wurtenberg, Hesse Darmstadt, and several other small States, and of the Austrian brigade Kalik, which, by a precipitate retreat from Holstein, has escaped the Prussians. It expects to receive reinforcements from Bavaria, Hanover, and other States.

In Italy, hostilities have barely commenced. A formal declaration of war had been issued by Italy on the 18th of June, and it was reported that the Italians had crossed the Mincio without meeting with any resistance. But the plan of the Italian campaign has not yet been developed. Kossuth was at Florence, and had been received by the King. He will act in concert with Garibaldi; and these two names are a guarantee that we shall soon hear stirring news from the Southern frontier of Austria.—New York Tribune.

DEPARTURE OF THE EPHESUS.—The Norfolk Virginian gives the following account of the departure of the steamship Ephesus from that port for Europe direct:

"The leviathan has left us on her return to the white cliffs of Albion, and we wish her a safe, quick, and pleasant voyage to those tranquil shores. She took her departure from the wharf at Town Point about 12 o'clock yesterday, (Monday,) decked in her gayest attire, all her colors flying, and accompanied by the cheers of a large throng of our first citizens, who had assembled at the wharf to bid her "God speed." She was pretty well loaded down with cotton, tobacco and other Southern commodities, and was drawing nineteen feet aft and eleven forward. It took the big ship some time to turn in our narrow channel, but when she once got around and headed seaward, she walked the waters at a proud and rapid stride, looking very grand and queenlike, indeed. She is at the present moment, no doubt, far out at sea, leisurely pursuing her course across the trackless ocean, and being rocked in the cradle of the deep.

Col. Wm. Lamb, the agent of the line, and the projector of the direct trade enterprise, went out as a passenger on the Ephesus, partly on business connected with the line, but principally on account of his health, which is rapidly failing, as he still suffers from the wound he received at Fort Fisher. We trust the genial climate of Europe may restore him to us with the return of the Ephesus, or some better vessel, re-invigorated in health.

And so ends the first chapter in direct trade with Norfolk,—and we can safely say that thus far it has been as successful as we could reasonably anticipate under the present state of affairs."

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Monday Evening, July 9, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR, JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

The Union Men--U S. Taxes.

An intelligent friend now in Washington, alluding to the course of Gov. Holden there, writes:

"Although, according to Holden, "no original Union man is safe in North Carolina," yet the books of the Department of Internal Revenue show that the officers in that State, charged with the collection of U. S. Internal Revenue, collected and deposited in the U. S. Treasury during the year ending the 30th of June last, the sum of $900,662,87. This is exclusive of what has been collected by the direct tax Commissioners, which I think amounts to over $200,000, and at least $100,000 collected on taxable articles which left the State under bonds, and the tax collected in New York and other parts."

All this in a State, whose aggregate losses from the war, including slaves, could not have been less than $200,000,000, and from a people who are unconstitutionally excluded from representation! And yet, in spite of all this, Revenue officers who have taken the "test oath," have not only pursued their work, receiving most of the money in the hands of the people, unmolested, but they have been treated with consideration wherever they have gone, without the slighest indication, that has come to our knowledge, of hostility to the government.—This in a State in which Gov. Holden was born and reared, and to whose people he owes all that he is! and yet he turns upon them and demands the disfranchisment of half of them, and declares that "no original Union man is safe in the State." What a comment upon his past professions to the people of North Carolina.

We have repeatedly declared that no respectable, well-behaved Union man, who obeys the laws, has suffered an iota since the surrender, on account of his opinions. That class of Union men needs no sympathy from Gov. Holden and gets none; for, as a general thing, they are not his supporters. But the so-called Union men, who since the war have carried on their hostility to Southern men, and have shown it, by their acts of violence committed upon their persons and property, as in Henderson and other Counties,—that is the class that gets sympathy from Gov. Holden, and they are the "original Union men" whom he says are not safe. Should such men,—such lawless persons, who gratify their propensities for plunder and their wrath against Southern men for opinion's sake—be screened from the penalties of the law, because they claim to be original Union men? One such at least was pardoned by Gov. Holden, while Provisional Governor, who has since, under a more just and loyal administration, been compelled to pay the penalty of imprisonment, for other acts of lawlessness and crime.

THERE IS NOT A DAY that passes over our heads, that every law-abiding and order-loving man in North Carolina should not fervently thank Heaven, that we have thus far escaped such a state of affairs as has afflicted Tennessee, under the wicked and diabolical sway of Brownlowism and of Radical counsels. There exist in that State a mutual distrust, a spirit of acrimony and bitterness, a reign of lawlessness and turbulence, and a feeling of general insecurity, that it is most deplorable to contemplate. These things are distinctly traceable to the disfranchising law of that State, and are legitimate and perfectly natural results. The man who has been deprived of his rights under the Constitution and laws of the land,—and especially of that right of suffrage which he has been taught to regard as a priceless boon,—will not look with other than an evil eye upon those who have been instrumental in thus robbing him. When bad passions and personal and sectional feuds are thus fomented, crimes, disorders and tumults follow, almost necessarily.

Had the late Provisional been elected Civil Governor of the State, his recent course warrants the opinion that we should this day be, if not actually in, at least upon the high road to, the same terrible condition. It will not be his fault if we are not yet reduced to it. The disfranchising programme which he is reported to have drawn up for Thad. Stevens, and which we published a day or two since, if carried into execution, will generate the same evils that have so terribly cursed our sister State. What is to be thought of the man, who is so full of malevolence towards his own neighbors and people?

Gov. Worth.

Our cotemporary the Old North State, at Salisbury, warmly sustains Gov. Worth for re-election, and for cogent reasons. The following extract from a late leader of that paper deserves special attention. The Old North State says:

"There are many reasons why Governor Worth should be satisfactory to all classes of our people. He has, by his course as Governor, shown that he is a true Southern man, that he is not wanting in sympathy with our people who struggled manfully and heroically in the late war for the independence of the South, however much he may have been opposed to its commencement himself. He has used his influence, and generally with success, in obtaining special pardons for those of our citizens who were involved in it, and who were excluded from the general amnesty. On the other hand, his Union record is such as render him entirely acceptable to our Northern brethren, if they could only be made acquainted with his real history, and the charge made by some that he is destitute of influence at Washington is not worth the trouble of refuting.

The only class of our people who cannot consistently support Gov. Worth is that small class whose unnatural sympathies are with the Radical leaders against the President and against their own people. We readily admit that no exclusionist can consistently support him, but, thank God, we hope we have but few of them among us, certainly not enough to make a respectable show by running a candidate of their own."

The Philadelphia Convention.

The New York World publishes a vast mass of extracts from public journals in all parts of the country, expressing their views on the great Conservative Union Convention called to meet at Philadelphia, on the 14th of August. There is some slight difference of opinion in respect to the desirability of such a Convention; and some difference in the warmth with which the approving journals recommend it. But the prevailing tone is cordial approbation and sanguine hopefulness. There has hardly ever been a movement, in the whole history of politics, in which a proposal has been taken up by the people with such ready and spontaneous zeal, and greeted with such unequivocal marks of vigorous approval.

We are glad to see that the ball has been put in motion in this State. The Old North State, of Saturday, contains a call for a meeting of the citizens of Rowan, to be held that afternoon, for the purpose of appointing a Central committee for the fifth Congressional District, to take such steps as will enable the people of the several counties of the district to assemble in primary meetings and appoint delegates to a District convention to be held in Salisbury, about the 24th of this month, for the purpose of electing two delegates to Philadelphia.

In Districts where it shall be found impracticable to hold County meetings or District Conventions, we hope that the plan suggested in our last issue will be adopted. We must, by all means, be represented in Philadelphia. We repeat the suggestion:

"As there is so little time to act, we propose that citizens of the First Congressional District, who can possibly spare the time, meet on Wednesday the 25th. of July, at Edenton, to select two gentlemen from that district; that the citizens of the 2nd. Congressional District meet the same day at Goldsboro'; those of the 3rd. District, at Fayetteville on the same day; those of the 4th District, at Raleigh on same day; those of the 5th. District, at Greensboro', same day; those of the 6th. District, at Salisbury on the 27th., and those of the 7th. District, at Asheville on the 28th. of July, and that the entire delegation meet in Raleigh on the 11th. of August, to select four delegates for the State at large.—What say the press and the people to this proposition?"

That Delegation.

Our readers will remember that we published, a few days ago, a special dispatch to the New York Tribune, stating that a North Carolina delegation was at Washington, for the purpose of ascertaining, definitely, upon what terms the Radicals would consent to the restoration of the State.

A Washington correspondent, alluding to the dispatch, says: "That numerous individual (Mr. Holden) has, it seems, resolved himself into a delegation." Subsequently, he says: "Dr. Sloan is also of the delegation." We presume that Dr. Sloan has no further "cotton transactions" on account of the State, and hence is willing to employ his leisure moments to aid his friend, Gov. Holden, in reconstructing, or in concocting the plan of getting the San Salvador mission. And is the future of North Carolina, the destiny of a great and honest people, to be put into the shambles, to purchase a mission to San Salvador?

Supreme Court.

We learn from a responsible source that this tribunal has decided at the present term, that a note given during the war for money simply, without expressing any particular currency, has the same force and is as valid to all intents and purposes as if made in 1860. The effect of the decision is to abrogate to a very considerable extent the law imposing a scale of depreciation. The only remedy, we presume, in such cases is to apply to a Court of Equity on the ground of fraud or mistake in the factum of the note.

We have had the above in type for several days, but have refrained from publishing it, hoping that we would be enlightened on the subject by our Raleigh exchanges, but thus far we have been disappointed. We hope that if any such decision has been made, our contemporary of the Sentinel will give us the information, and also publish the opinion at an early period.—Old North State.

Our friend of the Old North State has been entirely misinformed as to the nature of the decision in question. The facts in the case are as stated in the communication in another column, headed "Important Decision of the Supreme Court." We know of no other decision bearing upon this matter delivered by the Court during its recent term.

HON. KENNETH RAYNER, who has been absent for several months on a tour in the Southwest, returned a few days ago, we are glad to say, improved in health. Mr. R. gives an encouraging account of the recuperative energy and business spirit of the Southwest. We were pleased to find him, also, in good spirits, as to the future political prospects of the South.—He endorses fully the loyalty of the Southern people to the Union. He found no citizen of the Southwest at all willing to favor the new Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress.

WE INVITE attention to the excellent communication, in another column, over the signature of "North Carolina," which we copy from the National Intelligencer, of the 5th. Most of our readers are probably already advised who the "distinguished citizen" alluded to by Forney, as having visited Washington with such degrading suggestions, is.

WE WERE pleased to shake hands, a few days ago, with Col. D. M. Barringer, who has been temporarily residing in Baltimore, and returns on business for a short time. Col. B., we are glad to say, has recovered from his injury, with the loss of something in the length of one of his limbs. The Col. is hopeful of the future.

The Conservative State Convention at St. Louis, Missouri, adjourned on Wednesday last, after electing four persons from each Congressional District, and nine from the State at large, as delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The telegram published in the northern papers of yesterday announcing the assassination of Hon. R. Barnwell Rhett, of South Carolina, is erroneous. The gentleman murdered was his brother Benjamin, a Charleston merchant.

For the Sentinel.

On the 12th of June, the Ex.-Pro. Gov. was very sentimental and somewhat querulous. In his Ex-Court journal he says: "We do not seek to propitiate our enemies. We could not do it if we would, for the plain reason that their enmity is founded in prejudice and not in reason, and it is not possible to propitiate or influence those who are controlled by their prejudices." We are very sorry to hear that the amiable Ex.-P. G. has any enemies. It is quite certain that he deserves a better fate. Everybody seems to be so highly delighted with the prospect of his going abroad on a foreign mission, that, if their hearty congratulations of him, and of each other, and of the country, could reach his royal ears, they would be disabused, and he would bless himself as the happiest and most beloved of men. The sentiment is quite unanimous, and evidently very cordial. All, of whatever phase of politics, desire him to go, and wish him God speed! Some may be governed by feelings of personal love for himself,—a much greater number are more patriotic and only look to their "country's good."

But if there be some mistake in this matter, if the Ex-P. G. thinks he has enemies indeed, may it not be true that this seeming enmity is not founded in prejudice, but in apparent "reason?" Some people have an innate love of truthfulness, and may perhaps almost hate others who seem to have an unfortunate habit of lying. These honest, but perhaps over-sensitive, people have been latterly exercised, a little unreasonably it may be, about that false charge (published, Messrs. Editors, I am sorry to say, in your own paper, which is generally so truthful, but seems to have been betrayed, for this once, into an indiscretion) that more than 500 really unpardoned rebels were declared by his Excellency, the Provisional Governor, during his mild and gentle reign, to have been blessed with a full remission of all their sins, from Washington, and a restoration to all their former rights—that of voting in the then pending Gubernatorial election included. This is the charge: That the then Provisional Governor, now Ex-P. G., sometimes by courtesy called Governor, (particularly by John Rosemond) certified foully, for his own benefit, to this highly concentrated falsehood.—Some even say that there were five hundred falsehoods condensed into one, by some sort of provisional alchemy which they cannot comprehend. Others say, that most of these quasi-white-washed sinners, so mystically, by a quasi-Papal bull, transmuted into political saints, gratefully voted for W. W. Holden, who was thought to be somehow on the very best terms with the then Provisional Governor. Some of these regenerated rebels, suspecting the truth, or guilty of that ingratitude which is said to be "sharper than a viper's fang," are said to have voted for another gentleman who was in the field. It is much to be regretted that these damaging rumors should be allowed to go uncontradicted. The Ex-P. G. cannot condescend to waste his precious time either in contradicting, palliating, or even explaining. No one could reasonably ask this humiliation of one so distinguished in the past, and whose future is a real aurora of glory.

Messrs. Editors, I am credibly informed by John Smith, that he don't believe one word of this charge, and John Smith is eminently a truthful man. He declares himself ready to fortify his opinion with his corporal affidavy. I really hope this will put these vile slanders to sleep; and that the slumbers of our great statesman will not again be disturbed. Let him revel in the rich memories of a Past so brilliant and in delicious dreams of a still more gorgeous and glorious Future! Let auroras and rainbows dance all around and all over his precious head! Let him be smothered in Central American glory—as strawberries are said to be smothered in cream! Wherever his footsteps may lead him, may volcanic action cease! Let giant earthquakes be subdued, and become as little children, while our dearly beloved Ex. P. G. wanders about in search of the locus in quo of his magnificent golden mission!

Our excellent President is gifted with remarkable shrewdness, as well as with nerve. It is understood that he privately has been urging our distinguished statesman, whom he greatly desired to honor, to become, or seem to be, radical in his views and utterances, on purpose to secure a confirmation by the radical Senate. He knew there were but two horns to the dilemma in which he intended to place them. Either by a rejection, they would punish and lose a good and efficient friend—or by confirmation they would by implication recognize North Carolina as in the Union.

The good people of this State love her great son. They delight to see him honored and sent abroad. They will do almost anything, but vote for him. Monuments are not needed to evince their love. He lives in their hearts. His image will be there and cherished when he is gone. His memory will be refreshing should he go too far. In fact, of him it may be said, plus loin, plus cher. The farther he goes the dearer he will be. M.

Important Decision of the Supreme Court.

MESSRS EDITORS: The case of Lackey, admr. vs. Miller, &c., decided at the recent term of the Supreme Court, has a specific interest about it in these times, and therefore I beg to submit a note of it for your readers.

The plaintiff, as administrator, on the 3rd. of March, 1865, exposed to public sale a cow; and the defendant, Miller, purchased it, and, in accordance with the terms of sale, gave a sealed note for it as follows:

"$71.00. Six months after date we or either of us promise to pay James Lackey, admr. of Wm. Wray, dec'd. Seventy One Dollars in current bank money, for value received of him, March 3d. 1865."

On the trial before a magistrate in Cleaveland County, judgment was given against the defendants for the full amount, and upon an appeal to the Superior Court, this judgment was affirmed.

In the Supreme Court, however, judgment whs given for twenty dollars ($20,) with interest from the time that the note became due, upon the ground that $20.00 in specie was the value (it being left to the Court to say this) of the note at the time.

The Court (Chief Justice Pearson giving the opinion) say that the note in question is not for specie dollars, but for bank money dollars; that the proper action upon it is covenant for the damages sustained by a failure to comply with its promise; that it is not negotiable; and that the measure of damages is the value of the amount of bank bills called for, in United States coin.

AN EDITORIAL DUEL.—General Jordan, chief editor of the Memphis Appeal, has challenged M. A. Galloway, of the Avalanche, to mortal combat. The challenge was accepted, and the parties repaired to Hernando, Miss., where both were arrested and placed under bonds. It is thought the parties will go to Arkansas to settle the difficulty. The challenge originated from Colonel Galloway writing a severe attack against General Jordan on account of an article written by the latter to Harper's Weekly, in which Jordan blamed Jeff. Davis for the failure of the Confederacy.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, July 9, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jno. A. Craven offers for sale one of the most desirable farms in the county of Randolph.

J. N. Bunting, Clerk of Wake Superior Court, gives notice to all parties of record, having suits pending therein, to appear at September term prepared to try the same.

See third Quarterly statement of the Raleigh National Bank of North Carolina. This Bank, it will be seen, has, under its prudent and efficient management, declared a handsome dividend for the time it has been in existence.

Mr. Milum's Dancing School will be opened to-morrow afternoon, at the Planter's Hotel.—See his new announcement.

LOOK OUT FOR THE ROGUES.—Several bold nocturnal robberies have been committed in this City within the past few days, and it behooves the police, and our citizens, to be on the alert.

The residence of Henry R. Bryan, Esq., was entered on Friday night and a trunk of valuable clothing abstracted.

On Saturday night, the store of Mr. Phil. Theim, on Fayetteville street, was broken into and a number of articles stolen.

On Sunday night, we learn, the dwellings of O. D. Lipscomb and Edward White, in the neighborhood of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Depot, were entered and robbed,—to what extent we have not been informed.

Since the above was written, we learn that a negro man, calling himself John Wright and hailing from Norfolk, Va., was arrested this morning, having in his possession a watch that was among the articles stolen from Mr. Lipscomb. He was endeavoring to sell the watch at the time of his arrest. Doubtless, this fellow is implicated in the other thefts.

RELEASE OF MAJOR GEE.—It is stated that Major Gee has been released by order of Gen. Grant, in advance of the official publication of the proceedings of the Court Martial and of his acquittal. The Major is certainly at large and attended Church in this city on yesterday. We congratulate him, his family, and the friends of justice and humanity, upon his restoration to liberty. The exalted testimony borne to his character and worth on the trial, the evidences of his kindness and humanity in the trying position in which he was placed at Salisbury, his sufferings in confinement and the manner in which he bore them, will still further raise him in the public estimation.

MUSICAL TREAT.—We learn that our City is soon to enjoy a musical treat, in a concert to be given by Mr. Leonidas Wheat, a young gentleman of whose talents the South may well be proud. The artistic execution, brilliant touch, and peculiarity of thowing intense expression into the pieces he performs, stamp him as the possessor of musical genius of the highest order.

Mr. Wheat, we learn, will be assisted by several of the young ladies and gentlemen of this City.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD.—At a recent meeting of the Directors of this Road the following appointments were made:

Wm. H. Harvey, Superintendent of Transportation; Jas. W. Carmer, Secretary and Treasurer; Wm. P. Metts, Road Master; Jos. J. Roberson, Superintendent of Bridges and Repairs; E. J. Clayton, Master Machinist; Wm. B. Wadsworth, Station Agent, Newbern; Wm. G. Singleton, General Ticket Agent; Theo. Edwards, Station Agent, Goldsboro; L. Hartsfield, Station Agent, Mosely Hall; D. S. Ryan, Station Agent, Kinston; W. B. Duncan, Station Agent, Morehead City; Conductors—W. H. High, Jas. E. Morris, Jno. P. Thomas, E. W. Chadwick; Messrs. Greene and Clark Attorneys to the Company.

SUPERIOR COURTS.—The Fall Term of the Superior Courts will be held as follows:

1st	Circuit,	Judge Merrimon,
2nd	"	" Barnes,
3rd	"	" Warren,
4th	"	" Fowle,
5th	"	" Gilliam,
6th	"	" Buxton,
7th	"	" Mitchell,
8th	"	" Shipp.

SPECIAL TERM.—We learn that the Governor has appointed a Special term of the Superior Court for the County of Alamance, to be held on the 4th. Monday in the present month. His Honor, Judge Fowle, has been designated to hold the Court.

For the Sentinel.

PASS HIM ROUND!—There came a young man to this place, one week ago last Monday, who represented himself as hailing from New Orleans, claiming to be a musician, and traveling to get money to support his mother and sisters in New Orleans, and complete his own musical education. He came recommended to me, by the Rector of the Episcopal Church in Algiers, opposite New Orleans, as an "eminent musician," and a true man. He succeeded in making up juvenile sceools here of, perhaps, over one hundred. He demanded pay of fifty cents per month in advance, pleading necessity, gave two lessons, received pay from most of his pupils, and next day took his departure. His hotel board for one week is unsettled. I have seen a letter from him to a gentleman in this place, post-marked Raleigh, and, to the best of my recollection, it is in the handwriting of the letter of introduction which he showed me. This young man called himself H. De Vere. He is, I should judge, about twenty-two years of age, about five feet eight or nine inches high, fair complexion, inclined to be corpulent, full face, large blue eyes, dark hair, and when conversing turns his eyes up as if looking to the ceiling.—He is ordinarily dressed. He came here in a buggy, which he probably stole. He says the citizens of New Orleans gave him $2,000.—He wants $4,000. I write this that the people may guard against him, for there is no doubt about his being an imposter.

T. W. GUTHRIE.

FAYETTEVILLE, July 5, 1866.

From the National Intelligencer.

North Carolina and the Constitutional Amendment.

In the "Occasional letter" of the Chronicle of June 27th. is the following: "Two days before the message was sent to Congress, (that of the President signifying his disapprobation of the amendment of the constitution as proposed by a majority of Congress,) a distinguished citizen of North Carolina came to Washington for the purpose of ascertaining whether the President would be offended if the legislature of that State ratified the amendment, and said that many intelligent persons, including former rebels, had reached the conclusion that there was nothing to be gained by resisting the proposition passed by Congress, and that they fully anticipated and desired to prepare for the complete triumph of the Republican party," &c. In a subsequent part, the letter states that "not a single senator or representative has been chosen in any of the seceded States, except Arkansas and Tennessee, who was not so chosen because of his services in aid of the rebellion. There is scarcely an original white Union man in the South who does not either denounce what is called "my policy" or passionately resist the admission of these disloyal senators and representatives."

It is a matter of but little interest what citizen of North Carolina has visited Washington for the purpose alleged, or whether in fact such a visit was made. But after reading the latter of the above clauses, it will hardly be suspected to be any of her members elected to Congress, some if not all of whom might be inclined to raise an issue with the writer as to the reasons of their election.

To correct a false impression which this letter is calculated to make, I desire to say, that the legislature of North Carolina is not in session, and most probably will not be again until after a new election; that as now constituted, or as it may be after that election, it is not believed there will be found a single member who will give his sanction to the article of amendment proposed, though there are portions of it, taken separately, that might receive his approval. A Convention was in session when the proposed article was received in Raleigh—the same that was elected under the proclamation of the President last September—but if any member of this body favored the amendment in question, which would depose every judge, solicitor, or other public officer of the State, and bar out all citizens who, in the estimation of the people, are fit to fill their places, as well as deprive them of representation by men of their own choice in Congress, he did not manifest it by any proposal to that effect.

Equally unfounded is the other reckless assertion, that there is not a white Union man in the South who does not denounce the President's policy of restoration, or resist the admission of the Senators and Representatives elected. The truth is just the reverse. If any man does not acquiesce in the plan of restoration in question, he fails to make his objections before the people; and if any man who voted in the late Congressional election resists the admission of the members elect to seats in Congress, he stultifies himself, because he cast his vote for candidates liable to the same objections. The only exceptions to this are, that one or two hundred votes were cast for a Northern man in the Newbern district. It may be that those who speculate on the signs of the times anticipate "the triumph of the Republican party;" (the great mass of the people of the South are very indifferent to parties at present;) it may be, also, that the people of the North, under the leaders of this so-called party, will force on the country the violent revolution contemplated by the fundamental changes suggested by Congress. But if so, it will be but the act of a sectional party. The people of North Carolina, at least, will not voluntarily be parties in a process for their own attainder, the degradation of all her present officials, and a declaration of incapacity upon all whom the people would think of to succeed them. The people of the States have but little opportunity of intercommunication, and may, therefore, be misled by politicians; but it is the grossest delusion to represent that there is the remotest prospect of the ratification of the proposed amendment in this State, and this is probably true of all other States of the South. We trust it may likewise be with reasonable people in the North.

A Pocketfull of Bills for the President.—The Freedmen's Bureau Bill,—The President's Determination Regarding It.—Probability of a Veto,—The Tariff Bill, Tennessee and the Vital Interest Attached to Her Action on the Constitutional Amendment.

WASHINGTON, June 5.

The President is likely to have a pocketfull of bills at the close of the session, else he will have occasion for some veto messages. Congress will probably give him ten days for the consideration of each important bill, including the tariff and the negro suffrage bills, in order to give him the trouble of vetoing them, whereas he might, otherwise, simply pocket them.

The freedmen's bureau bill which has passed, prolongs that institution, but the Senate amendment for restoration of the Sea Island plantations to their owners was adopted. It is not certain that the President will veto the bill in this form, but it is generally supposed that he will do so. The President has decided to terminate the bureau at the close of one year after the war—that is, one year after the proclamation declaring the war to be ended. It, at the next session, it be found expedient to continue the bureau another year, it will be time enough then to pass a bill for that purpose.

Unless Congress consent to remain here ten days after the tariff bill be sent to the President, they will probably not see the bill again. The general view of the country is that it is a matter that can be beneficially deferred until the next session.

All eyes are turned towards Tennessee. The action of her Legislature upon the Constitution is regarded with great interest. It is the vital point with the radicals. If, no matter by what influence, they obtain in form the ratification of the amendment by Tennessee, it will be their strongest reliance for success in the coming Fall elections. They will represent to the people that all loyal men of all the excluded States are like those of Tennessee, in favor of the radical policy. IOTA.

NO EXTRA SESSIONS.—Gov. Stone, of Iowa, announces that he will not call an extra session of the Legislature, at least at present, and the Governors of Illinois and Wisconsin will do as he does.

General Sickles Refusing to Obey a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

CHARLESTON, July 6.—General Connor, counsel for Keys and others "convicted," by a court-martial, of killing two soldiers in the Andersonville district, and now confined in Castle Pinckney, sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Bryan to-day. General Sickles refused to obey the writ, and Judge Bryan has issued a writ of attachment against Sickles for contempt of court.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 7, P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Morgan presented the remonstration of the New York Chamber of Commerce against the tariff bill, pending in the House.

The remonstrants state that the tariff would be injurious to the commercial, mercantile and manufacturing interests of the country, and would not increase the revenue of the Government. It was referred to the Finance Committee.

The bill to increase and fix a military peace establishment, was called up and read, but prior to any action thereon, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House was engaged in the consideration of the tariff bill.

A fatal case of Cholera was reported in New York last evening and also one in Brooklyn.

Advices from St. Domingo to the 23rd. ult. state that the liberal policy of the former administration towards foreign enterprises is to be continued. The country is quiet, except at Seybo, where Guillermo, one of Baezi's guard, headed a rebellion which, it is expected, will be easily quelled.

Revolution in Cuba—South American league to wrest the Island from Spain.

BALTIMORE, July 9.

The Steamship Cuba, from Havana, with dates to the 4th, brings important news, if true. It is reported, through private sources, that a revolt had occurred near Porto Principe,—the insurgents declaring for independence. Troops were sent against them and a skirmish took place, when several companies of troops went over to the insurgents, who afterwards proceeded to the mountains.

It is further rumored that four steamers, bearing the Chilian flag, landed upwards of 2000 troops on the island, who effected a junction with the Revolutionists.

Later.

The steamship New York, from Aspinwall, brings later advices. It is said that Chili, Peru, Bolivia, and Ecuador have formed a league to wrest Cuba from Spain, and have invited Venezuela and Columbia to join the alliance.

The first three are to furnish the money—the others the men. Hopes are entertained of aid from Southern emigrants who will embark from the coast of Florida.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE

PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.,
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilitic or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.
